LABOUR M.P. TAKES HIS SEAT London August 6. - Mr J. Kelr Hardie

Labour member for West Ham (South), drove to the House of Commons on Friday in a waggonette, with a hand playing the Marsoillaise; he wore a tweed suit and a cap in the House and only removed the latter when called to order by the Speaker. IMr Hardie was elected for the constituency by 5,268 votes, against Major Banes (C.) who polled 4,036, thereby adding to the Gladstonian gains. Mr. Hardie is a miner from Lanarkshire, and at the Mineral Conference lately held at London, he attended as paid secretary of the Scottish miners.

Members, by long custom, may wear

The steamer Victoria, which is to be one of the regular traders between Hongkone and Tacoma (Wash.) of the Northern Pacific Company, arrived to day from Glasgow. The vessel was formerly known as the Parthia, and under the flag of the Canadian Pacific Company made some smart rups between this port and Vancouver. Since returning to Scotland, she has been in the hands of Mesers John Elder & Co., Glasgow, by whom she has been practically reconstructed, both with a view to the accommodation of passengers and the carry. ing of freights. From Messra Dodwell, Carlill and Co., the agents for the new line which has been doing a good cargo business since May, we have received a number of pamphists and other documents, bearing upon the history, present condition and prospects of Tacoma, Spokano, Seattle and other growing cities of importance on the route of the Northern Pacific Railway.
